SOLDIERS' STATE CONVENTION.-The same Ciarkshurg Telegraph of Inst week publishes a call, numerously signed, for a convention of discharged soldiers and officers to be held in Clarksburg, on Saturday, the 23d inst. Among the names of the signers to the call we re-cognize those of some of West Virrinia's noblest soldlers. All portions f the State are invited to send dele of the State are invited to send delegates to this Convention, the object of which is to organize a Soldiers' League, and also to appoint delegates to the National Convention, which will be held in Washington, in January next. It is earnestly desired that the meeting be large, and it is hoped that the gallant men of West Virginia who impersited their lives in support of the Government, will come together and commingle on that occasion.
